The Be An Angel Awards Gala honoring outstanding Houstonians who make a difference in the lives of children was held at Hotel ZaZa. Lt. Gov. Dan Patrick and his wife, Jan, served as dinner chairs and Gala Chair Carmina Zamorano brought in a record $575,000. The amazing auctioneer, Heath Hale, raised more than $426,000 in the live auction and the Fund a Need. Myra Delacruz, a BE An Angel special needs child shared her story helping to create the auction excitement. Be An Angel serves children with multiple disabilities or profound deafness by providing adaptive equipment and special services. Honorees recognized for their service to children in need were Superintendent of Schools for Aldine ISD, Dr. Wanda Bamberg, Founder and Director of Texas EquiSearch, Tim Miller, Commissioner for Dept. of Public Safety, Henry "Hank" Whitman and VP of Be An Angel, & Dan Pastorini. Guests included Astronauts Fred Haise and Walt Cunningham, Dot Cunningham, Deborah Duncan, Rafael Chavez, Pam Morse, Judy Nichols, Robert & Gayle Rosales, David & Dianna Voll, John Leake, John Will, Sarah Hernandez, Delia Mizwa, Barbara Garney & Ray Solcher.
